

HP Data Protector A.06.11 release notes

Part number:
First edition: September 2009

Version: A.06.11

Description

Data Protector is a scalable data protection solution that automates high-performance backup and recovery, from disk or tape, over unlimited distances, ensuring 24x7 business operations and maximized IT resources

Update recommendation Routine

Supersedes A.06.10

Product models

For details about supported platforms, refer to the latest list of support matrices on the Web: <http://www.hp.com/support/manuals>

Devices supported

For details about supported devices, refer to the latest list of support matrices on the Web: <http://www.hp.com/support/manuals>

Operating systems

For details about supported platforms, refer to the latest list of support matrices on the Web: <http://www.hp.com/support/manuals>

Languages

International English, Japanese, French

Enhancements

For full details of enhancements in this release, see the HP Data Protector Product Announcements, Software Notes, and References

Fixes

For full details of fixes in this release, see the HP Data Protector Product Announcements, Software Notes, and References

Prerequisites

For full details of prerequisites, see

- HP Data Protector Product Announcements, Software Notes, and References
- HP Data Protector Installation and Licensing Guide

Installation instructions

For installation instructions, see

- HP Data Protector Getting Started Guide
- HP Data Protector Installation and Licensing Guide